How to Avoid the Office Flu?

The flu. It gets around, and it gets around faster when you're at the office. Crowded and stuffy, the office is the epicenter for getting sick. Since the cold and flu season is in full swing, here are a few easy ways you can avoid the flu at the office.

- Avoid close contact.
- Refrain from handshaking.
- Sanitize and disinfect office/work stations, and commonly used areas/items.
- Post handwashing signs in the restrooms and kitchen/break room.
- Send sick workers home.
- Get a flu shot.
